GIVE DAD A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR THE CAR

DOOR OLD POP!

Safe in the garage, unharmed by the howling snow storms without, stands the family gas wagon. It's still there, but it's deteriorating fast-and as Dad looks back over the summer months of expenditures he fears to think of the future.

The Yuletide season is here. Make Dad's Christmas a real one. Lift the burden of auto cost from his shoulders by buying him tires or bumpers or spotlights-jacks-parking lights-pumps-robes-chains-a tire gauge-tools-tow lines-trouble lampsor wind deflectors.

Stop pondering and read the Christmas Gift Suggestions column in today's edition of The Bulletin. There are plenty of suggestions there for gifts to the automobile owner.

Coakley and Dunlevy have a coursely called Chicken Chasers. An even called Chicken Chasers. Policy is last, but not least on the program, furnishing plenty of laughter. A Vitagraph special featuring Antonic Noreno in A Gullry Conscience is the fea-ture picture.

The best in vaudeville can always be seen at the Strand blaying exchangely Reen at the Strand blaying exchangely Ref. F. Kelth's hir time acts. Compare the good with the medicare and you will know why you are a steady patron of the Strand theatre.

How a thief, spurred by the maxim that there is bonor among thieves, may the foundation for a life of honest activity, may be seen in the new Goldwin Photoplay by Charles Kenyon, "Begging the Game," which will be shown at the Breed theatre today and Thursday.

Tom Moore is the former crock to whom is suggested by what he supposes to be a "master mind" of the underworld, that he "go straight" for a certain period of time. The "master mind" However, the new experience of activity becomes an unbreakable and the former crock earns the name of "Honest Tom" in the village he has chosen to live in.

Of course, there is a girl and many temptations to try "Honest Tom's" pa-tience, but he wins his way in the end. When he encounters the "muster mind" again he feels that all his progress has boen in vain. But it would not he fast to disclose who the "master mind" was or how he opened a new vista of life to "Honest Tom." Find out at the Breed just what happened.

For the sound feature Files Percy will be seen in "Big Town Ideas"

Davis Theatre The Davis this week presents a well varied all star vaudeville bill. Any act ing featured on any bill. This is un-doubtedly the most expensive vander the bill that has been presented in Nersich in years. Class is distinctly evident in every act. The feature act is The Seren Brown Girls presenting a sparkling melange of musical merriment, a veri-Norwich, on the 20th day of December.

There are many coses of measles in Phoenixville and Eastford; numerous school children are ill with the unlady. Sunday school was held at the McNair chapel as usual. There was a good at-bendance to hear Rev. Frank Abbett.

Mrs. Cora Chemens, who teaches in Thompson, is to spend the week end there, the guest of friends. John Kaleichlix, the local athlete, wrestled in Putnam Saturday evening. Ray Clemens recently butchered two weighty hoge.

John R. Vinton of Burnside and George Small were week end guests of Ray Clemens.

The supper at the chapel in Eastford Friday evening attracted a large number of local people.

A temphers' meeting was held Wednesday at the Center. Miss Cennelly, the local teacher, attended.

May Be Ambassador To

Germany

Houghton, of Corning, New York, has been mentioned as President Harding's choice for American Ambassador to Germany. Representative Houghton spent several years in Germany, giving him intimate knowledge of German affairs. He is a Harvard graduate and took up post-graduate work in universities in Berlin and Paris.
